FORK UNION BAND TAKES 1ST PLACE IN PARADE

On October 8, 1977, the Fork Union Military Academy Dillard Guard performed at the Appomattox Railroad Day Festival, and despite the inclement weather, won first place marching unit for the second year in a row. The Guard, which is the junior school drill team, was represented by some 35 cadets, raning in age from ten to fifteen years old.

The performance was highlighted by a rifle solo by cadets, Mark Seidl and Mike Vandergrift, both from Northern Virginia. The Guard Commander, Cadet Lieutenant D. Brian Hanes of Roanoke, Va., also performed a rifle solo, with an overhead pass which surprised and pleased the crowd.

The Dillard Guard is trained and sponsored by Captian Frank H. Breault, Jr., who is married to the former Valeria M. Brannan of Appomattox.

The Guard wishes to express its appreciation to the Junior Woman's Club and the town of Appomattox for inviting them to this fine parade.

EXTENSION HOMEMAKERS SEND BOOKS TO FLOOD VICTIMS

The Appomattox County Extension Homemakers are sending a box of books to the Southwestern part of Virginia to aid the flood victims. There are books for children and for adults, and are in several categories including historical and inspirational.

LOCAL TEACHERS MEET WITH VEA PRESIDENT

The Appomattox County Education Association held its fall meeting on Wednesday, October 12, 1977, at 3:45 in the Appomattox County High School auditorium. Mary Hatwood, President of the Virginia Education Association (VEA), discussed the importance of teachers working together for the improvement of education. The VEA slide presentation "Today I Learned I'm Not Alone" was shown. It documents the day last winter when teachers from all over Virginia went to Richmond to let legislators know their concerns. To close the meeting, Reggie Smith, VEA Director of Human Relations and Leadership Development spoke about how educators have a most important job because the children of our nation, and our county, are our most important natural resource.

There will be a public forum on child abuse Wednesday, November 16, 1977 at 7:30 p.m. at E. C. Glass High School. The forum is sponsored by the education associations in central Virginia. Everyone is invited to attend.
